DR. E. HEZ SWEM WILL PUBLICLY ANSWER CRITICS

Announces Subject for Tomorrow Night.

CHURCH MAY ACT SOON

Trustees Expected to Call Meeting of Congregation.

Prompted by the light of publicity turned upon their church affairs, the board of trustees of the Second Baptist Church may soon call a meeting of the congregation to consider the "missionary work" of their former pastor, Rev. Dr. E. Hez Swem.

In the meantime, Dr. Swem is, in the popular phrase, "standing pat." He will make no verbal statement in defense of his position. He is, however, preparing a comprehensive and powerful sermon for tomorrow night in his church, terming it "A reply to the caustic criticism of my acts in The Washington Herald."

STIR IN CHURCH CIRCLES.

The exclusive publication in The Washington Herald yesterday of the "shift" of seventy-two members from the Second Baptist Church to Dr. Swem's new house of worship in Typographical Temple, caused a stir in church circles.

As a result, the District of Columbia Baptist Association may be forced to take some action, since the Capital Baptist Church, which Dr. Swem has founded, is not affiliated with the association, and technically, therefore, members of that congregation are not Baptists. It is stated, however, that officers of the Second Baptist Church made out the necessary certificates granting the change of parish or church association whenever application was made. These certificates were never refused, officers of the church say, and no effort was made to stem the flow of parishioners from the "mother church" to Dr. Swem's organization.

"There will undoubtedly be some action taken by the congregation of the Second Baptist Church," said S. G. Nottingham, clerk of the church, yesterday. "Probably a church meeting will be held. There is no question that the soliciting of our members by Dr. Swem has caused a great deal of talk and unpleasant comment. There never has been any disagreement between our congregation and their former pastor, but the steady flow of members from our church to his has not been unnoticed."

"The board of trustees decided, informally, to let the matter drop, as the church was prospering and has actually gained more members than it had lost during the period in question. As clerk of the church, I am in a position to know just how many members we have gained and lost in the last seven months. There is no question that our church is in a better condition to-day than ever before.

Question as to Certificates.
"I am not prepared to say whether the granting of certificates allowing members to change from one church to the other was entirely in accordance with church form, in view of the fact that the Capital Baptist Church is not a regularly recognized Baptist church."

"The Second Baptist Church is not worrying over the situation. We are prepared to let matters stand as they are. The free advertising given to Dr. Swem by the publication undoubtedly will be welcome to him."

SUPT. DAVIDSON TAKES OATH TO-DAY

Board of Education to Hold Important Meeting.

Important matters dealing with the reorganization of the public school system will be discussed at this afternoon at a special meeting of the board of education. President James F. Oyster and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, vice president, will be re-elected.

Dr. William Davidson, the new superintendent, will be sworn in by R. O. Wilmarth, financial clerk of the board, while former Supt. A. T. Stuart will be sworn in as supervisor of intermediate instruction. The other officers who will be sworn in are S. E. Kramer, E. L. Thurston, Mrs. C. L. Harris, as a new member of the board, while Capt. Oyster and R. R. Horner will be reappointed.

Mr. Stuart was presented with a handsome basket of American Beauty roses yesterday morning by the Engineering Janitors' Association upon his retirement as superintendent. The tribute was presented by T. J. Jones, of Eastern High School, in behalf of the association, and a brief address was made by H. F. McQueney, superintendent of janitors.

Dr. Davidson arrived in Washington yesterday morning and spent a part of the afternoon in consultation with Mr. Stuart.

CHARLTON NAMED JUDGE.

Father of Wife Slayer to Preside in Porto Rico.

Paul Charlton, law officer of the Insular Bureau of the War Department, has been appointed judge of the United States District Court of Porto Rico. This office was recently offered to Foster V. Brown, of Chattanooga, at present attorney general of the island, but he declined on the ground that as attorney general he had prepared a number of cases now pending before the District Court, in which he would not be able to sit as judge.

Mr. Charlton was a classmate of President Taft at Yale in 1878, and is the father of Dexter Charlton, who is now held in the Hoboken jail for extradition to Italy on a charge of murdering his wife last summer at Lake Como, Italy.

Checks Said to Be Worthless.

Harry M. Forst, salesman, living at the Fredonia Hotel, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Hawlett and Pratt, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses. The police say Forst, who had been a guest at the hotel since June 11, passed two worthless drafts for $50 each. They were drawn on the Loew Motor Supply Company, of New York City. Forst is held in $500 bonds.

Promotions for Law Clerks.

The Secretary of the Treasury has approved the promotion of the following named law clerks in the Division of Customs from $2,000 to $2,500, effective to-day: George W. Ashworth, James W. Evans, Frank M. Halstead, and James M. Nevins.

Appointed West Point Professor.

Maj. Edwin R. Stuart, of the Army Engineer Corps, was appointed by the President yesterday as a member of the corps of professors at the Military Academy at West Point. He will succeed the late Prof. Charles W. Larned.

Coronation at the Columbia Theater.

The special messenger of the International Amusement Company that was hurried across the Atlantic on the Mauretania has arrived in the city with the wonderful moving picture of the coronation of King George, which will be exhibited exclusively at the Columbia Theater Sunday night at 8:15. Seats are now being reserved at the box office. Orchestra, 50c; balcony, 35c; gallery, 25c.
